RE: Legislative Hearings

Date: May 7, 2009

After many months of urging from NYSCOPBA, The New York State Assembly and Senate have agreed to hold hearings titled:

The Overabundance of Administration in the New York State Department of Correctional Services.

The hearings will be kicked off in Albany on the day of the NYSCOPBA rally. June 2, 2009 10:00am to 2:00pm.

Testimony concerning the bloated administration at Building Two and the excess administrative titles that exists at each facility will begin by testimony from President Donn Rowe, Executive Vice-President Chris Hickey on June 2, 2009 and then travel across the state throughout the summer of 2009.

A final report will be issued in the fall after all testimony concludes. Check the NYSCOPBA website regularly for updates on the Summer Hearings schedule.

If you are interested in testifying, please contact me in order to be scheduled. We want to get as many NYSCOPBA members as possible to present ideas or instances on duplication of administrative services, waste, free houses, free cars etc...
