Correctional Peace Officers Foundation

The Correctional Peace Officers Foundation, Inc. was created in 1984 to fill the long-outstanding need for a charitable support organization of, by and for the professional Correctional Officer.

Primary Goals: The first and foremost goal of the C.P.O. Foundation is to protect and assist the survivors (spouses and children) of on-duty Correctional Peace Officers murdered at the hands of incarcerated felons. Despite extensive training and great care in the performance of duties, acts of violence against Officers can and do occur. The C.P.O. Foundation believes that the bereaved family of a slain Officer should not have the added burden of obtaining funds for their immediate needs.

The second main goal of the C.P.O. Foundation is the upgrading of the image of the professional Correctional Officer in the perception of the general public, nationally and globally, and in the minds of Correctional Officers themselves.

The Benefit: The C.P.O. Foundation Death Benefit Program provides a total of $47,000.00, paid in installments over a 24-month period of time, to the family of the Correctional Peace Officer (as defined in the Bylaws of the C.P.O. Foundation) murdered in the line of duty. The payment schedule is as follows: (1) $5,000 death benefit paid to the recognized family of the slain Correctional Officer upon certification of an on-duty murder by an incarcerated felon or supervised parolee, either juvenile or adult. (2) $2,500 per month benefit paid to same for the next 12 months. (3) $1,000 per month benefit paid to same for the second 12 months.

Growth: Since the inception of the Correctional Peace Officers Foundation, its supporting membership has continued to increase. That growth has enabled the Foundation to broaden its scope to now include assistance in the areas of hospice need, bereavement and catastrophic situations or illnesses.

Community Involvement: The C.P.O. Foundation is also involved in local community affairs. In each area that a fundraiser is held, the C.P.O. Foundation donates back into the community a portion of all monies received. These funds are donated to a variety of programs within the community, most as a rule going to youth oriented activities such as drug diversion programs and/or youth self-help groups; and always in the name of the Correctional Peace Officer.

Membership: For a minimum donation of $5.00 per month, a Correctional Officer can join the C.P.O. Foundation as a Supporting Member. This contribution is TAX DEDUCTIBLE. Supporting membership is open to all who are Correctional Officers working within the Correctional Series supervising in-custody felons anywhere in the world. Eligible are the men and women who work within prisons, institutions or jails supervising either adults or youths, or in the parole/probation systems. This includes city, county, state or federal systems. Collectively, this group of professional Peace Officers is called "Correctional Peace Officers." All supporting members receive: (1) full coverage under the C.P.O. Foundation's Death Benefit Program; (2) a membership certificate; (3) a membership decal; and (4) an automatic subscription to the C.P.O. Foundation's quarterly, the CPO Family.*

The Correctional Peace Officers Foundation, Inc. is registered with the U.S.A. Internal Revenue Service under 501(c)(3), 509(1)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi). The tax identification number is 68-0023302.

\$5.00 of your total annual donation is allocated for your subscription to the CPO Family magazine.*
